WCU FOOTBALL

Bill Zwaan completed his fifth season as head coach at West Chester University. He guided the Golden Rams to four consecutive NCAA Division II National Playoffs and two consecutive Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Easter Division titles.

The Golden Rams set a school record for victories in a season in 2004 and won the first NCAA Division II Playoff game in the history of the program.

Prior to arriving at West Chester in February of 2003, Zwaan spent the previous six years as the head coach of perennial NCAA Division III powerhouse Widener University. He led the Pioneers to three consecutive Middle Atlantic Conference Championships before coming over to WCU.

Zwaan's career record is an outstanding 99-32 for a .756 winning percentage. In 2000 and 2001, Zwaan was named the AFCA Region II Coach of the Year. In 2001, Zwaan was the American Football Quarterly Magazine's Division II National Coach of the Year.

Camp Objectives

The WCU Wing-T Football Team Camp is a fundamentally-based program emphasizing individual and team instruction. Repetitive drill work to perfect technique and controlled session pass protection for linemen are emphasized. Offensive drills in a 7 vs. 7 format improve skill position athletes.

Clinics for high school coaching staffs are provided between each session, while each day begins with group meetings and ends with a post-practice walk-through.

Speed and strength developing sessions with Golden Ram strength coach Jim Brazill augment skill enhancement with physical improvement.
